St. Mary's University Faculty Evaluation Form

TO THE STUDENT:

The faculty and administration of St. Mary's University recognize student input in evaluating teacher effectiveness. At this time, we would like to solicit your input by completing the following questions regarding the instruction for this course. We ask that you approach this evaluation from a serious standpoint. The results from this form will contribute to personnel decisions as well as assist the instructor in improving teaching effectiveness. Please attempt to be as objective as possible. In any written comments, please try to be specific and descriptive rather than general and judgmental. The results will not be available to the professor until after final grades.

GUIDELINES FOR WRITTEN COMMENTS

Giving feedback is similar to holding up a mirror so that individuals can see themselves as others see them and learn how their action have been affecting others. You are encouraged to give written comments using these guidelines:

- Be sure your intent is to help, not hurt.
- Be descriptive (what) rather than evaluative (why).

Descriptive: "You interrupted me several times."

Evaluative: "You don't care about students."

- Be specific, not vague.

Specific: "You interrupted me ..."

General: "We don't get to discuss enough."

- Avoid overload; focus on what is important and can be changed.
- Offer suggestions for change.

1. Describe the strengths of this class and/or instructor; be specific and give examples.

It was made an enjoyable class by our instructor since he was laid-back & we just got to be comfortable with the school & our surroundings. He made it fun.

2. Describe any weaknesses of this class and/or instructor; be specific and give examples.

This class was okay but I know of other ones where they expect papers & stuff & that's just unnecessary. Also, the only thing with our class specifically is that we did not need our binders.

GUIDELINES FOR WRITTEN COMMENTS

Giving feedback is similar to holding up a mirror so that individuals can see themselves as others see them and learn how their action have been affecting others. You are encouraged to give written comments using these guidelines:

- a. Be sure your intent is to help, not hurt.
- b. Be descriptive (what) rather than evaluative (why).

Descriptive: "You interrupted me several times."

Evaluative: "You don't care about students."

- c. Be specific, not vague.

Specific: "You interrupted me ..."

General: "We don't get to discuss enough."

- d. Avoid overload; focus on what is important and can be changed.
- e. Offer suggestions for change.
