End of Course Evaluations: PHIL 2306 015 Introduction to Ethics

Dear Andrew Hill,

Attached are Fall 2012 results of the survey PHIL 2306 015 Introduction to Ethics, from the questionnaire NVC_Evals.

The report contains both quantitative and qualitative feedback to assist you in analyzing your results. Elements in the report include the number of respondents, mean, median, standard deviation, histogram, profile line and student feedback. We will use the data to improve the delivery of instruction at NVC.

Sincerely,

Dr. Bruce

Comments Report

3. Faculty members believe that comments or examples are extremely valuable. Please answer the following questions.

3.1) Aspects of this course I found most helpful were...

- Blackboard and the provision of readings that would further help you understand the material.
- N/A
- The handouts were much easier to follow than the book. The professor explained everything piece by piece and all the information connected perfectly by the end of the course.
- The pictures and writing the list on the board.
- The writing of the words on the board everyday were very helpful.
- all

3.2) Aspects of this course I would most like to see changed are...

- Do what he says he will do
- His methods of teaching are so scattered, week after week it was the same thing just being repeated. He said he wanted us to have an opinion but you could tell he would fight you to the death if you said something he thought was wrong. It ETHICS isn't that the point, for everyone to have their own opinion? Anyways the class was a waste of my time, we only had one test. We turned in a paper, and he said "they were so bad i'm not even going to grade them" is that not code for i just didn't want to grade them? I have an A in my comp 2 class so how is it that my writing skills would suddenly get worse.
- How much paper is being used in the worksheets that we just go throw away anyways.
- More interaction between groups. Talking to one group the entire semester became stale disinteresting. I would have liked to find the opinions of people I have yet to talk to in the classroom.
- Nothing.
- Teaching us about something we don't know, making it a little more challenging.
- none

3.3) Your instructor would like to know some specific things he/she did particularly well...

- Being available to students whenever they needed help and willingness to work with students one on one.
- Easy set up to learn
- Great way of keeping the discussions going by taking each table's opinions. We analyzed the situations carefully as a team.
- I feel the professor did an excellent job at moderating the material. He subdued his own feelings and opinions when presenting the material, and encouraged student expression during open discussion.
- N/A
- Nothing

3.4) Your instructor would like to know some specific things you did not like about the course that he/she should change to improve his/her teaching...

- He was late every day, and average of 5-10 minutes, it was not okay. I had NO IDEA what grade i had in the class, he hardly returned stuff to us. The class was extremely boring. We learned some stuff about IHL for no reason, it wasn't even in our final. We were this big guinea pig class for this little experiment of his and i honestly feel like i wasted my time and money.
- He was very unorganized and did not email back or bring back what he said he would do.
- I would have liked to hear more of my professor's opinions, yet I understand how it could tangle the course material. I wouldn't change anything.
- Nothing.
- The teacher be a little more interested in his profession and not make it seem like he doesn't want to be there, Show up on time,
