End of Course Evaluations: PHIL 2306 025 Introduction to Ethics

Dear Andrew Hill,

Attached are Fall 2012 results of the survey PHIL 2306 025 Introduction to Ethics, from the questionnaire NVC_Evals.

The report contains both quantitative and qualitative feedback to assist you in analyzing your results. Elements in the report include the number of respondents, mean, median, standard deviation, histogram, profile line and student feedback. We will use the data to improve the delivery of instruction at NVC.

Sincerely,

Dr. Bruce

Comments Report

3. Faculty members believe that comments or examples are extremely valuable. Please answer the following questions.

3.1) Aspects of this course I found most helpful were...

- "I want you to question what YOU are doing with your life." Taught me to really look into my life and just to question what I'M doing, and making sure its what I want to do.
- Got me to think about tough situations.
- Great book for the class, very knowledgeable professor
- How well he explained things and how he had us memorize key terms was very intersting bu helped alot.
- I enjoyed the lectures and the explanations to how specific topics apply to our every day life.
- Learning whats right and wrong and a few fun facts on world issues
- Mr. Hills reviews for the test. Also inviting the class into his lectures.
- N/A
- that we could speak our mind
- the handouts and reviews.
- the teacher was helpful and engaged in a lot of the activities
- used great examples to explain lectures/material

3.2) Aspects of this course I would most like to see changed are...

- I loved learning the basic's, but now I just want to learn MORE! Maybe more time added???
- More guest speakers on topics covered in class.
- More debates
- More world issues to discuss
- N/A
- N/a
- None
- none
- none really.
- nothing i see would need to be changed

3.3) Your instructor would like to know some specific things he/she did particularly well...

- Explaining the concepts of the book to us through class discussions and lectures, which was followed up with handouts.
- Great speaker
- He did great all the way around.

- I thought he taught the material pretty well
 - Inviting the class in with his lectures. Allowing us to have fun yet speak our mind about certain topics. Helping us study our review before a test day.
 - Kept the lecture on topic and always spoke with great interest on the topic
 - Made class really interesting, very informative, was very helpful
 - N/A
 - One of the best teachers I ever had. He really explains his stories soooo well! He was such a great story teller, that it was so easy to get into the lesson.
 - Prof. Hill was a fantastic professor. He really got us thinking about our morals and about who we are as a person. I like that he made us question ourselves so much. He actually helped me to figure out who I really am and what I really stand for. He also has a great sense of humor, which I love.
 - everything
 - kept the class thinking
 - make the information interesting.
- ^{3.4)} Your instructor would like to know some specific things you did not like about the course that he/she should change to improve his/her teaching...
- He didn't stay with his syllabus, but that's fine with me because we didn't have to do as much work.
 - If you do not show up for a test, even though you let him know way ahead of time, it is still partial credit when you make it up. I thought this was no fair since i did do my part and let him know i was leaving for a day at the beginning of the semester and a week before I left.
 - Keep us more informed on our grades.
 - N/A
 - N/a
 - Never really kept students up to date on what current grades are in the course
 - None
 - The only thing would be, maybe being able to get a progress report, or maybe just having my grade posted on Canvas to know what my grade is without bothering the teacher. Even though if you asked him, he without any question gave it to you. Very nice man.
 - Use canvas more, perhaps post some of the worksheets electronically to save paper.
 - dont change :)
 - none
 - nothing i see would need to be changed
