End of Course Evaluations: PHIL 2306 033 Introduction to Ethics

Dear Andrew Hill,

Attached are Fall 2012 results of the survey PHIL 2306 033 Introduction to Ethics, from the questionnaire NVC_Evals.

The report contains both quantitative and qualitative feedback to assist you in analyzing your results. Elements in the report include the number of respondents, mean, median, standard deviation, histogram, profile line and student feedback. We will use the data to improve the delivery of instruction at NVC.

Sincerely,

Dr. Bruce

Comments Report

3. Faculty members believe that comments or examples are extremely valuable. Please answer the following questions.

3.1) Aspects of this course I found most helpful were...

- Debates
- Everything
- The IHL integration.
- The most helpful was the class interaction.
- everything
- group descusions were great and it was interesting getting to see other peoples opinions expressed so openly.
- learning why we believe what we do and discecting our actions and lifestyles
- working in groups

3.2) Aspects of this course I would most like to see changed are...

- Maybe more use of canvas
- More debates
- Organization
- The course is fine the way it is, maybe some more volunteer events.
- it would have been great to have a field trip and do some volunteering because everything students hear goes in one ear and out the other and i think the experience would change their lives and would actually help them connect more to the class.
- none
- nothing
- nothing this was a great ethics class!
- the book was not necessary he gave us every thing we needed

3.3) Your instructor would like to know some specific things he/she did particularly well...

- Everything
- He really knows his stuff and was great at opening minds
- Listened and guided
- Presenting the subject in a clear and direct way.
- connecting the class to his personal lives and having students connect it to their own
- did very well in letting people express there own ideas and opinions while keeping the content on course.
- made lectures interesting
- talk

- was very interesting to listen too and had plenty of real life experience
- 3.4) Your instructor would like to know some specific things you did not like about the course that he/she should change to improve his/her teaching...
 - I think if anything he needs to keep better track of time and keep his students on subject.
 - More in depth with the material.
 - More up to date debate material. BUT I also understand that we have some YOUNG kids in the class who probably are not ready to realize that 7 year old kids are taking up arms RIGHT NOW and fighting in wars (no 7 year old will say armed conflict).
 - Organization
 - explanation of examples
 - i want to be able to talk about the walking dead. their are some very good scenarios that have alot to do with ethics that really had nothing to do with zombies that i think i was not able to use as an example because the teacher did not allow it, possibly because of his religious beliefs and other personal reasons, and i thought this class was suppose to teach you to be open.god said in the end the dead shall rise, jesus rose from the dead.we eat and drink his blood at mass. i dont find a discussion on the situations in this show inappropriate. i would recomend this show to the teacher because the story and situations in the show themselves are so deep without the zombies and i think if mr.hill watched this show he would be addicted to it. because if hes teaching this class and telling us about all these horrific things people do and the decisions people make then i think the show would help expand his thoughts on decision making.
 - none
 - nothing, great class!
 - power points could be uploaded to canvas
